Cops set to shave their heads

BY ALLISON ROY
TRIBUNE

After May 5, a few West Nipissing Police officers may be unrecognizable as they will be taking part in a "Cops for Cancer" fundraiser. Initiated locally by Detective Pierre Mantha, the event will see approximately 10 officers lined up in the Rivet Insurance parking lot at lunchtime, shaving their heads for the cause.

"All of us have been affected by cancer, from family to friends to co-workers," Mantha explains. "The members of the [WNPS] want to raise funds in support of the cause while making a small sacrifice to bring awareness to the battle that cancer patients face."

According to Mantha, the funds raised will go to Cops for Cancer North Bay, which encompasses North Bay, Mattawa, West Nipissing and surrounding area.

He estimates that it's been over 15 years since the officers in the area have shaved their heads for a cause, and he is really looking forward to the event.

"It's been exciting," he enthuses. "The response has been good not only from the public side, but also from the officers who are going to be shaving their heads. Those who are not, actually will be there to support as well."

He adds that fundraising has already begun, as local businesses have committed donations and the officers are also collecting pledges.

"We had a goal of $2500, but we're definitely hoping to exceed that goal," Mantha shares.

To make a donation, people can contact Detective Pierre Mantha at 705-753-1234 or by email at pmantha@wnps.ca. Donations will also be collected on the day of the event.

"We would love to have the support of the community and have a crowd come cheer us on as we support this great cause," Mantha invites.

According to the Canadian Cancer Society website, Cops for Cancer began in 1994 and has raised over $50.4 million so far. It sees police officers and other emergency services personnel organize different events throughout Ontario, including head shaving and a number of other initiatives.

Funds raised go towards research, information and support services, prevention efforts and advocacy.

Canadian Tire celebrates revamped store

April 15 was an evening to celebrate for the owners and staff of the Sturgeon Falls Canadian Tire store. Owners Pierre and Joanne Marchand joined with the West Nipissing Chamber of Commerce to host a wine and cheese inside the store, rubbing shoulders with fellow business people as they walked up and down the aisles to view the new facilities. Officials from the corporate headquarters also joined the staff to celebrate the newly refurbished, redesigned and expanded store. Chamber executive member Theo Tsiogas welcomed all the guests on behalf of the Chamber, thanking Pierre Marchand for agreeing to join together for a combined pre-Grand Opening and Chamber After Six event, and commending him on a beautifully appointed retail centre. The Marchands were also feted by Mayor Joanne Savage, who made note of the important role the store plays in the local economy. The Canadian Tire store now employs 66 people and the mayor cited spinoffs of 8 million dollars annually.

The store grew by about 50%, from 17,000 square feet to approximately 24,500 square feet, allowing for more merchandise to be stocked and displayed.

In the photo, Pierre and Joanne Marchand, centre, surrounded by their employees and representatives from the corporate office, cut the official ribbon in front of the store. The official Grand Opening and sale commenced Thursday, April 16.
